ORDER

15 This is a foreclosure case involving a single property. Defendants Ticor Title of Nevada, 16 Inc. ("Ticor Title") and Stanley S. Silva have moved to dismiss the motion for failure to state 17 a claim under Rule 12(b)(6). For the following reasons, the Court grants the Motion to Dismiss 18 (#4) on all counts except count five (claiming violations of N.R.S. § 107.080 et seq.).

19 BACKGROUND<sup>1</sup>

20 In 2007, Plaintiffs Scott and Sonia Sexton obtained a loan from Indymac Bank, FSB
21 ("Indymac") in the amount of $752,000.00. (Compl. (#1-2) at 23). To secure the loan, a deed
22 of trust was executed against 5 Pecetti Circle, Reno, Nevada 89511 (the "Property") on April 23

24 _____
25 <sup>1</sup> Defendants Ticor Title and Stanley Silva have requested judicial notice to be taken of 26 attached copies of relevant publicly recorded documents. (See Request for Judicial Notice 27 (#5)). The Court takes judicial notice of these public records. See Disabled Rights Action Comm. v. Las Vegas Events, Inc., 375 F.3d 861, 866 n.1 (9th Cir. 2004) (the court may take 28 judicial notice of the records of state agencies and other undisputed matters of public record under Fed. R. Evid. 201).

1 24, 2007. (Deed of Trust (#5-1) at 1-3). The deed of trust listed Indymac as the lender, 2 Stewart Title Guaranty Company as the trustee, and Mortgage Electronic Registration 3 Systems, Inc. ("MERS") as the beneficiary. (Id. at 2). The deed of trust was recorded in the 4 Washoe County Recorder's office on May 1, 2007. (Id.).

5 Some time later Plaintiffs defaulted on the loan. (See Notice of Breach (#5-2) at 1).
 6 Defendant Ticor Title then recorded a notice of breach and election to sell under deed of trust 7 (the "NOD") on August 18, 2010. (Id. at 1-2). The NOD was signed by Defendant Stanley S.
 8 Silva as an agent of Ticor Title. (Id. at 2). NDEX West, LLC ("NDEX") was listed on the NOD
 9 as the current trustee, and Ticor Title apparently recorded the NOD claiming to be an agent 10 of NDEX. (Id.). A notice of trustee's sale was then executed by NDEX on April 28, 2011.
 11 (Compl. (#1-2) at 6). LSI Title Agency, Inc. recorded the notice of trustee's sale on May 4, 12 2011, setting a sale date for May 19, 2011. (Id.). LSI Title Agency, Inc. is believed to be an 13 agent of NDEX. (Id. at 20).

14 On May 12, 2011, Plaintiffs filed this complaint in the Second Judicial District Court of 15 the State of Nevada against Indymac; Steward Title Guaranty Company; NDEX; Onewest 16 Bank, FSB; LSI Title Agency, Inc.; Ticor Title; and Stanley S. Silva. (Compl. (#1-2)). In the 17 complaint, Plaintiffs allege the following causes of action: (1) debt collection violations; (2) 18 violations of the Unfair and Deceptive Trade Practice Act (N.R.S. § 649.370); (3) violations of 19 the Unfair Lending Practices Act (N.R.S. § 598D.100); (4) violations of the covenant of good 20 faith and fair dealing; (5) violations of N.R.S. § 107.080 et seq.; (6) quiet title; (7) fraud in the 21 inducement and through omission; (8) slander of title; and (9) abuse of process. (Id. at 24-48).

22 The action was then removed to this Court on June 21, 2011. (Pet. for Removal (#1)).
 23 Defendants Ticor Title and Stanley Silva ("Defendants") filed a motion to dismiss for failure to 24 state a claim pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 12(b)(6) on June 21, 2011. (Mot. to 25 Dismiss (#4)).

26 LEGAL STANDARD

27 The analysis and purpose of a Rule 12(b)(6) motion to dismiss for failure to state a 28 claim is to test the legal sufficiency of a complaint. Navarro v. Block, 250 F.3d 729, 732 (9th

1 Cir. 2001). The issue is not whether a plaintiff will ultimately prevail but whether the claimant
 2 is entitled to offer evidence to support the claims. Gilligan v. Jamco Dev. Corp., 108 F.3d 246, 3 249 (9th Cir. 1997) (quotations omitted).

4 To avoid a Rule 12(b)(6) dismissal, a complaint must plead “enough facts to state a 5 claim to relief that is plausible on its face.” Clemens v. DaimlerChrysler Corp., 534 F.3d 1017, 6 1022 (9th Cir. 2008) (quoting Bell Atl. Corp. v. Twombly, 550 U.S. 544, 555 (2007)). A claim 7 is plausible on its face “when the plaintiff pleads factual content that allows the court to draw 8 the reasonable inference that the defendant is liable for the misconduct alleged.” Ashcroft v.
 9 Iqbal, ____ U.S. ___, 129 S.Ct. 1937, 1949 (2009). Although “detailed factual allegations” are 10 not required, the factual allegations “must be enough to raise a right to relief above the 11 speculative level.” Twombly, 550 U.S. 544 at 555. “Threadbare recitals of the elements of a 12 cause of action, supported by mere conclusory statements, do not suffice.” Iqbal, 129 S.Ct.
 13 at 1949 (citing Twombly, 550 U.S. at 555). All well-pleaded factual allegations will be accepted 14 as true and all reasonable inferences that may be drawn from the allegations must be 15 construed in the light most favorable to the nonmoving party. Shwarz v. United States, 234 16 F.3d 428, 435 (9th Cir. 2000); LSO, Ltd. v. Stroh, 205 F.3d 1146, 1150 n.2 (9th Cir. 2000).

17 If the court grants a motion to dismiss a complaint, it must then decide whether to grant 18 leave to amend. The court should freely give leave to amend when there is no “undue delay, 19 bad faith or dilatory motive on the part of the movant, . . . undue prejudice to the opposing 20 party by virtue of allowance of the amendment, [or] futility of amendment.” Foman v. Davis, 21 371 U.S. 178, 182 (1962); see also Fed. R. Civ. P. 15(a). Generally, leave to amend is only 22 denied when it is clear that the deficiencies of the complaint cannot be cured by amendment.
 23 DeSoto v. Yellow Freight Sys., Inc., 957 F.2d 655, 658 (9th Cir. 1992).

24 DISCUSSION

25 The chief obstacle Defendants encounter in seeking to have the action dismissed 26 against them for failure to state a claim is that they have failed to show they had any authority 27 to file the NOD. Defendants contend they acted as the agents of NDEX—who they claim is 28 the duly appointed trustee—yet fail to provide the Court with any evidence that NDEX was in

1 fact the trustee over the deed of trust. (See NOD (#5-2) at 1). Stewart Title is listed on the 2 deed of trust as trustee and no substitution of trustee was presented to show Stewart Title was 3 replaced by NDEX. (Deed of Trust (#5-1) at 2).

4 Yet despite this deficiency, all but one of the claims against Defendants are still 5 dismissed because they do not apply to Defendants. Because the majority of these claims do 6 not apply to Defendants, any attempt to amend would be futile.

7 I. Debt Collection Violations

8 In the first cause of action for violations under N.R.S. § 649.370, Plaintiffs have failed 9 to state a claim because foreclosure pursuant to a deed of trust does not constitute debt 10 collection under the Fair Debt Collections Practices Act (15 U.S.C. § 1692) ("FDCPA").
 11 Camacho-Villa v. Great W. Home Loans, No. 3:10-cv-210-ECR-VPC, 2011 WL 1103681, at 12 *4 (D. Nev. 2011). N.R.S. § 649.370 states that a violation of the FDCPA along with all 13 regulations adopted under this Act is a violation of Nevada law. For a defendant to be liable 14 for a violation of the FDCPA the defendant must be classified as a "debt collector" within the 15 meaning of the Act. Heintz v. Jenkins, 514 U.S. 291, 294 (1995). A "debt collector" is defined 16 by the FDCPA as "a person who . . . regularly collects or attempts to collect, directly or 17 indirectly, debts owed or due or asserted to be owed or due another." 15 U.S.C. § 1692a(6).
 18 Numerous courts have also determined that the act of foreclosing on property pursuant to a 19 deed of trust is not the collection of a debt within the meaning of the FDCPA. See, e.g., 20 Gillespie v. Countrywide Bank, FSB, No. 3:09-cv-556-JCM-VPC, 2011 WL 3652603, at *2 (D.
 21 Nev. Aug. 19, 2011); Rubio v. Mortg. Outlet, No. 2:11-cv-550-JCM-RJJ, 2011 WL 3475902, 22 at *2 (D. Nev. Aug. 9, 2011); Hagos v. MTC Fin., Inc., No. 11-cv-01272-GMN-RJJ, 2011 WL
 23 3471153, at *2 (D. Nev. Aug. 8, 2011).

24 Defendants here were collecting pursuant to a deed of trust and thus cannot be liable 25 under N.R.S. § 649.370 because they are not "debt collectors" under the FDCPA. For this 26 reason, Plaintiff's first cause of action fails.

27 II. Nevada Unfair and Deceptive Trade Practice Act

28 In the second cause of action for deceptive trade practices in violation of the Nevada

1 Unfair and Deceptive Trade Practice Act (N.R.S. § 598.0923) Plaintiffs have again failed to 2 state a claim because recording a notice of default does not require a business license. Huck
 3 v. Countrywide Home Loans, Inc., No. 3:09-cv-553-JCM-VPC, 2011 WL 3274041, at *3 (D.
 4 Nev. July 29, 2011). Under N.R.S. § 598.0923, a person engages in deceptive trade practices 5 when a party knowingly conducts his or her business or occupation without all required state, 6 county, or city licenses. Nev. Rev. Stat. § 598.0923(1). The statute explicitly states that the 7 following activities do not constitute doing business in this State: (1) maintaining, defending 8 or settling any proceeding; (2) creating or acquiring indebtedness, mortgages, and security 9 interests in real or personal property; and (3) securing or collecting debts or enforcing 10 mortgages and security interests in property securing the debts. Nev. Rev. Stat.
 11 § 80.015(1)(a), (g)-(h).

12 Defendants were enforcing a mortgage securing a debt and therefore no business 13 license was required. This cause of action consequently lacks merit.

14 III. Nevada Unfair Lending Practices Act

15 In the third cause of action, Plaintiffs failed to state a claim for unfair lending practices 16 under the Nevada Unfair Lending Practices Act (N.R.S. § 598D.100) because the statute does 17 not apply to Defendants. This statute only applies to original “lenders.” See Nev. Rev. Stat.
 18 § 598D.100(1); Velasquez v. HSBC Mortg. Serv., No. 2:09-cv-0784-KJD-LRL, 2009 WL 19 2338852, *3 (D. Nev. July 23, 2009) (dismissing a claim against defendants who were not the 20 originators of the loan). Defendants were not the originators of the loan, but merely the party 21 that filed the NOD. Accordingly, Plaintiffs fail as a matter of law to state a claim against 22 Defendants for unfair lending practices.

23 IV. Breach of Good Faith and Fair Dealing

24 In the fourth cause of action, Plaintiffs failed to state a claim for violation of the 25 covenant of good faith and fair dealing because Plaintiffs allege no contractual relationship 26 existed between themselves and Defendant. To succeed on a cause of action for breach of 27 the covenant of good faith and fair dealing, a plaintiff must show: (1) the existence of a valid, 28 enforceable contract; (2) the defendant's performance in a manner that is unfaithful to the

1 purpose of the contract and the justified expectations of the plaintiff; and (3) resulting damages
 2 sustained by the plaintiff. Perry v. Jordan, 111 Nev. 943, 948, 900 P.2d 335, 338 (1995).

3 Plaintiffs specifically allege there was no contractual relationship between Defendants 4 and the original parties on the deed of trust. (Compl. (#1-2) at 6, 9) (alleging there was no 5 substitution of trustee and Defendants had no authority to foreclose on Plaintiffs). Plaintiffs 6 rely on this argument to maintain their claim that Defendants lacked authority to foreclose on 7 the Property. (Id. at 9). Yet by alleging Defendants had no contractual authority, they also 8 assert there was no contract. Defendants cannot be liable for breach of the covenant of good 9 faith and fair dealing regarding a contract that never existed.

10 V. Violations of N.R.S. § 107.080

11 In the fifth cause of action for violations of N.R.S. § 107.080 et seq., Plaintiffs have 12 stated a claim against Defendants because Defendants have not shown they were authorized 13 to file the NOD. Under N.R.S. § 107.080, a notice of breach and election to sell may only be 14 executed by the beneficiary, the successor in interest of the beneficiary, or the trustee. Nev.
 15 Rev. Stat. § 107.080(c). There is no evidence either Ticor Title or Silva was the beneficiary, 16 successor in interest to the beneficiary, the trustee, or an authorized agent of any of the 17 above. Defendants contend they acted as the agents of NDEX—who they claim is the duly 18 appointed trustee—but have not shown that NDEX was in fact the trustee over the deed of 19 trust. (See NOD (#5-2) at 1). Stewart Title is listed on the deed of trust as trustee and no 20 substitution of trustee was presented to show Stewart Title was ever replaced by NDEX.
 21 (Deed of Trust (#5-1) at 2). Because Defendants have shown no evidence that they were 22 authorized to file the NOD, Plaintiffs have stated a claim under the fifth cause of action.

23 VI. Quiet Title

24 In the sixth cause of action for quiet title, Plaintiffs fail to state a claim because 25 Defendants are not claiming an interest in the Property. To succeed on a quiet title claim the 26 plaintiff must allege that the defendant is unlawfully asserting an adverse claim to title to real 27 property. Clay v. Scheeline Banking & Trust Co., 40 Nev. 9, 159 P. 1081, 1082 (1916).
 28 Defendants however have asserted no interest in the Property by filing the NOD. Defendant's

1 filed the NOD on behalf of NDEX and not on their own behalf, and thus are not asserting that 2 they have any claim to the Property. (NOD (5-2) at 1-2). Plaintiffs seem to acknowledge that 3 NDEX is the party asserting an interest in the Property as trustee by alleging that Defendants 4 were only acting as agents of NDEX. (Compl. (#1-2) at 6, 20). Because Plaintiffs seem to 5 concede Defendants are not asserting an adverse interest on their own behalf, Plaintiffs fail 6 to state a claim on this count.

7 VII. Fraud

8 In the seventh cause of action for fraud in the inducement and through omission, 9 Plaintiffs have again failed to state a claim against Defendants because the allegations do not 10 apply to either Ticor Title or Silva. Under Nevada law, a claim of fraud in the inducement 11 requires the plaintiff to establish each of the following elements: (1) a false representation; (2) 12 knowledge or belief that the representation was false (or knowledge that the defendant's basis 13 for making the representation was insufficient); (3) intent to induce the plaintiff to consent to 14 the contract's formation; (4) justifiable reliance upon the misrepresentation; and (5) damage 15 resulting from such reliance. J.A. Jones Const. Co. v. Lehrer McGovern Bovis, Inc., 120 Nev.
 16 277, 290, 89 P.3d 1009, 1018 (2004). To establish a fraud in the omission claim, the 17 "defendant must have been under a duty to disclose the fact to the plaintiff." Nev. Power Co.
 18 v. Monsanto Co., 891 F.Supp. 1406, 1415 (D. Nev. 1995).

19 Plaintiff cannot make out a claim of fraud against Defendants because neither of the 20 Defendants are accused of making false representations to induce Plaintiffs to enter into the 21 loan agreement. Defendants only filed the NOD and played no part whatsoever in the loan 22 agreement. Defendants are also not alleged to have had any duty to disclose any facts to 23 Plaintiffs. Because the Defendants played no part in the creation of the loan, Plaintiffs' 24 assertion that Defendants fraudulently induced Plaintiffs into entering the loan necessarily 25 fails.

26 VIII. Slander of Title

27 In the eighth cause of action for slander of title, Plaintiffs have failed to state a claim 28

1 because it is undisputed that Plaintiffs are in default. (Compl. (#1-2) at 32 (noting Plaintiffs do
 2 not claim no money is owed on the loan)). To succeed on a slander of title claim, the plaintiff 3 must show a “false and malicious communication disparaging to his title in land, and causing 4 special damage.” Exec. Mgmt., Ltd. V. Ticor Title Ins. Co., 114 Nev. 823, 842, 963 P.2d 465, 5 478 (1998) (citing Higgins v. Higgins, 103 Nev. 443, 445, 744 P.2d 530, 531 (1987)).

6 By filing the NOD, Defendants were stating that Plaintiffs were in breach of the loan 7 agreement due to nonpayment. (NOD (#5-2) at 2). Plaintiffs do not dispute that they are in 8 fact in default. Because the statement is not false, Defendants cannot be liable for slander 9 of title.

10 IX. Abuse of Process

11 In the ninth cause of action for abuse of process, Plaintiffs failed to state a claim 12 because Defendants did not initiate any judicial process. To prevail on a claim of abuse of 13 process, the plaintiff must show that the defendant (1) had an ulterior purpose in bringing legal 14 action other than resolving a legal dispute, and (2) used the legal process in a manner that is 15 not proper in the regular conduct of the proceeding. Georgiou Studio, Inc. v. Boulevard Invest, 16 LLC, 663 F.Supp.2d 973, 982 (D. Nev. 2009). A nonjudicial foreclosure is generally not 17 considered the type of “process” the tort of abuse of process was meant to address because 18 by its very definition it does not involve judicial action. Barlow v. BNC Mortg., Inc., No. 3:11-cv-19 304-LRH-VPC, 2011 WL 3841223, at *4 (D. Nev. Aug. 25, 2011).

20 Defendants cannot be liable on this claim because the foreclosure was nonjudicial and 21 therefore not considered “process” under the tort. Even if a foreclosure was considered to be 22 “process”, the claim against Defendants would still lack merit because Defendants only filed 23 the NOD and did not file the notice of trustee’s sale or conduct any foreclosure proceedings 24 against the Property. For these reasons, Plaintiffs’ claim of abuse of process fails.

25 CONCLUSION

27 For the above reasons, Defendants’ Motion to Dismiss (#4) is granted on all counts 28 except count five (violation of N.R.S. § 107.080 et seq.). Defendants’ Motion to Dismiss count

1 five is hereby denied.
